

Andreas Teufel, pianist
www.andreasteufel.at

Pianist Andreas Teufel studied at the University of Music and Performing Arts Graz with Alexandr Satz and completed his studies in piano performance with distinction. Currently he works as a piano coach at the University of Music and Dramatic Arts. Before that the musician lectured at the University of Music and Dramatic Arts Graz and at the China Conservatory in Beijing

Andreas Teufel was a former member of a promotion program of the Austrian Broadcasting Corporation and held an honorary prize of the Austrian Federal Ministry for Science and Research. He participated in courses of Wolfgang Watzinger, Peter Feuchtwanger, Günter Reinhold, Jos van Immerseel (fortepiano), Axel Bauni (vocal accompaniment) and Joze Martinez (coaching). Important artistic impulses he also gained from Lisa Smirnova, Harald Ossberger, Friedrich Cerha and Mari Kiyofuji.

So far, his performances have led him from numerous European countries as far as South Africa, Egypt, China and Ethiopia. Contemporary music always has had an important role in his repertoire: he gave a solo recital at the renowned Viennese festival for contemporary music "Wien Modern". Between 2013 and 2016 he regularly conducted Lieder studios at the American "AIMS" summer festival in Graz. In 2015 the extraordinary double CD „AUF! - A Sound Trek“ was released by Orlando Records together with the Austrian baritone Clemens Kölbl.

Andreas Teufel is not only a multifaceted soloist, chamber music partner and coach but also a founding member of the Stella Artis Ensemble, the artist platform KlangGut, holder of a doctoral degree in mechanical engineering from the University of Technology in Vienna and plays the traditional Viennese button accordion in several folk music formations.